

Shuttle House

Calver

Shuttle Cottage is an 18th Century sluice keeper's house with a 1970's conservatory extension. BA obtained planning permission to demolish the existing conservatory and build a subterranean extension to the front of the property built into the ground under the existing front garden and extended eastward under the drive way.

